

Chateau le Brun

The Owner

Name: Maria Fouret

Joined us: February 2012

Maria says: "Initially I was a little undecided about renting my home - I didn't know what to expect and how quickly this would work... but through the years I was delighted to encounter so many lovely guests (writers, musicians, doctors etc.)... they made my home their second home and that is the most fun part of the rental... I used to work with another agency but soon found there was no need as Oliver's Travels were delivering all of our bookings! When they came to take professional photos they even brought a drone to the property to capture the estate and location. One of the co-founders also came to the property to meet me and advise me on maximizing my returns. I'd never use anyone else and my brother-in-law now also uses them."
